

Master of International Business

Darla Moore School of Business

DOUBLE-DEGREE PROGRAM

ESSEC BUSINESS SCHOOL | SINGAPORE

What is the Master of International Business Double-Degree program?

The MIB Double-Degree program is a two-year immersion program enabling you to earn two master's degrees from two world-renowned universities in two different countries, giving you a new perspective on how the world works. You earn a Master of International Business degree at the Darla Moore School of Business — the nation's leading institution for international business education — followed by a Master in Strategy and Management of International Business at ESSEC Business School, one of the world's leading universities for management. Both programs combine cutting-edge management skills with a deep understanding of the worldwide marketplace — providing you with everything you need to master a world in motion.

Why is it valuable to participate in this program?

The MIB degree is a direct path to a career in international business — a second degree from one of our partners accelerates this process. Both degrees provide you with:

- Real-world experience and credentials to demonstrate your ability to succeed in the global economy
- Access to a global network of peers
- Educational immersion at top-ranked international universities

Why choose the ESSEC Double-Degree program?

ESSEC Business School's Master in Strategy and Management of International Business allows students to tailor the program to match their career goals and gain an in-depth understanding of all aspects of international business from consumer goods to services and high-tech products. Courses emphasize real-life business situations and include a wide range of learning methods such as case studies, role playing, field work and individual/team projects. Those interested in international banking and finance and international consultancy are well-suited to this program.

Courses offered at ESSEC include:

- Corporate Strategy in Western Countries
- Strategic Consulting in Western Countries
- Managing Digital Transformation and Innovation
- Doing Business in Asia
- Financial Management of International Projects
- International Trade and Investment
- Entrepreneurship
- Doing Business in Africa

Also unique to ESSEC is its one-week international business trip offered to SMIB candidates. You'll gain valuable real-life experience through meeting with local based companies and professionals and discovering a wide range of sectors and issues. The trip's destination changes every year, but previous students have visited Bangkok, Berlin and Mexico City.

Career connections and employment outlook

The Moore School's Office of Career Management prepares you for a successful job search by developing and delivering value-added training focused on career exploration and targeted job placement. As an MIB student, you'll be trained in a wealth of skills to launch your international career, including resume development, interviewing, building a personal brand and professional networking opportunities.

Furthermore, each of our partner schools have extensive career centers to support students in their chosen careers through international internships, international career fairs, personalized career advice and one-on-one career coaching. Through this incredibly strong combination, recent graduates of the MIB program have found placement at companies such as IBM, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Dell, Capgemini, Ernst and Young, Bank of America and many other leading international corporations.
